

Everyone can see it but you

Your card faces the table on a stand.

3 2 1 BOO! BOO! BOO!

A 3, a 2 and a 1 for every player

Boo Who?

Party game · 4–8 players · 15 min

A hidden-role game where everyone knows but you!

Your role card stands facing the table, so you can read every card except your own. Each round, everyone puts Boos on each other, then everyone runs or stays at the same moment. A Boo is a point for you if you call it right, and a payout for whoever put it there if you call it wrong.

For fans of Scape Goat and Skull

Boo!

3 2 1

Everyone puts a 3, a 2 and a 1 on three other players at once. Pile Boos on the Living, or bluff a Ghost into running.

Run or stay?

Run!

Stay

On "3, 2, 1, boo who?" everyone points at once: at yourself to run, at the table to stay. Living should run. Ghosts should stay.

Flip!

Scared to death

Living, but you stayed? The Boos on you pay 6 points to whoever put them there. Run, and they're 3 points for you.

4–8 players

15 min three rounds

17 cards, 8 stands, in a tuck box
