

Play it now

Tutorial, bots and online tables

SENTAI

COOPERATIVE SHEDDING · 2–4 PLAYERS

A cooperative card game where nobody talks and nobody ever draws

WHY IT STANDS OUT

- The squad builds every combo together, one or two cards at a time. With no table talk, the cards you play are the only way to tell your teammates what you hold.
- Your hand is your health. Every card that beats a monster is spent, a missed monster comes back until you beat it, and if anyone's hand runs out, the Boss wins.
- Two Boss decks that play differently and five optional Hero powers, all in 101 cards: 2–4 players in 20–30 minutes.

For fans of The Crew and The Mind

Face the monster

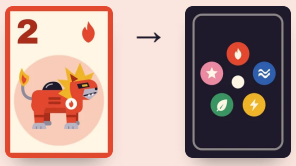

Each act's monsters line up face up. Every card prints a combo (a Run, Set, Color or Combine) and its size for 2, 3 and 4 Heroes.

Build it together

Starting with the lead, each Hero adds 1 or 2 cards that fit, or passes. Nobody may say what they hold: the first card played is the signal.

Beat it or fight again

Finish the combo and those cards are spent. Fall short and they come back, everyone discards 1, and you fight it again.

2–4 players, cooperative

20–30 minutes, three acts

101 cards in a two-piece box

$15–20 target retail price

Available now: rules, a print-and-play kit on request and a playable version with a tutorial, bots and online tables at darrendon.com/games/sentai

Darren Don Kansas City, MO

darren@darrendon.com