

Nine cards, one skeleton

Five species to dig up

On your turn, do one

1 Excavate
Play a run or set of cards that sit side by side in your hand. Beat a rival's find to take the site and keep their cards.

2 Or poach
Take an end card off a rival's find. Send them one of yours.

3 Go out
Empty your hand to end the season. Score captured cards and sites held, minus cards left in hand.

Play it now
Tutorial, bots and online tables
darrendon.com/games/diggers

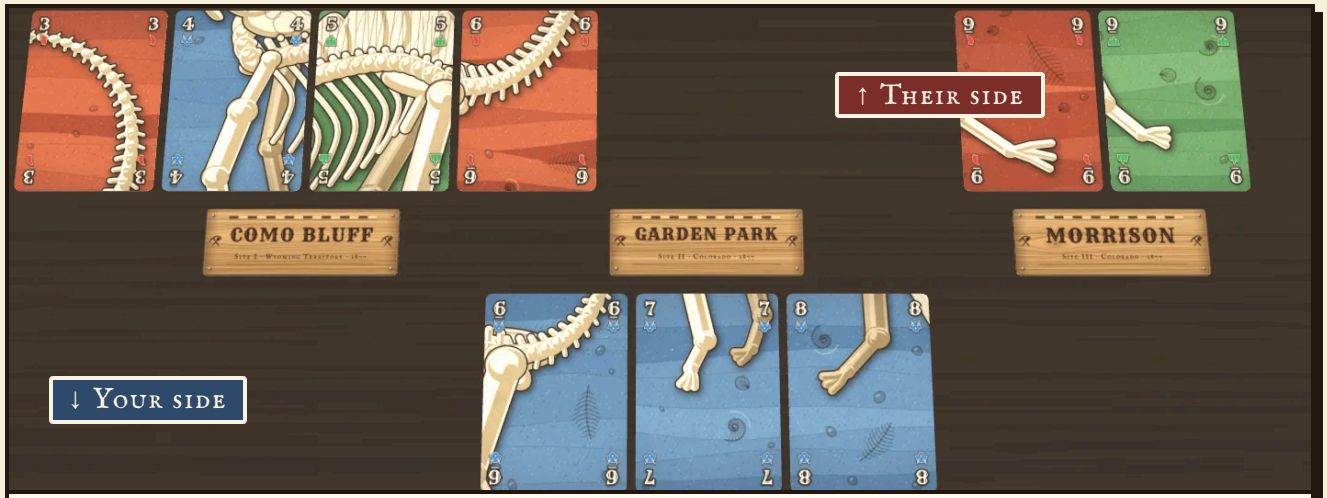

DIGGERS

Shedding · Lane Battler · 2-4 Players · $10-15

A LANE BATTLER WHERE YOU CAN NEVER REARRANGE YOUR HAND.

Beat a rival's find with a better run or set to take the dig site and keep their cards. Empty your hand first, before cards left in it count against you.

For fans of Scout and Schotten Totten.

A two-player season: three dig sites between the camps. They hold two, you hold one.

Now or later

Every play is a tradeoff between grabbing a site now and keeping the cards you need later in the order you hold them.

Steals cut both ways

Taking a card from a rival's find always means handing them one of yours, so every steal helps someone.

Small box, short game

45 cards and six site cards in a tuck box, for 2–4 players in 10–20 minutes.

2–4 players
10–20 minutes
45 cards, 6 sites, tuck box

Available now: rules, a print-and-play kit on request and a playable version.

Darren Don
Board Game Designer, Kansas City
darren@darrendon.com