

A CARD GAME FOR 2 TO 5 PLAYERS · AVAILABLE FOR LICENSING

A WRESTLING SHEDDING GAME WHERE YOU DON'T WANT TO SHED!

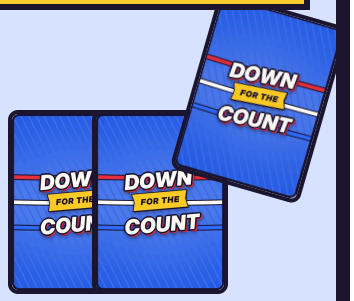

Every card in your hand is a move you can still make, so you'd rather keep them. Each turn you top the move on the table or take a count to stay in the match. Play your last card and you tap out. Use up your count and the ref slaps the mat. The last wrestler standing wins the round.

TOP THE MOVE

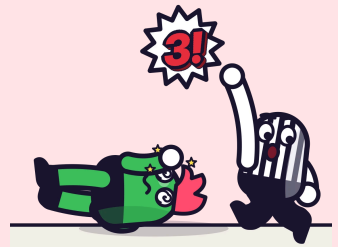

A bigger move beats a smaller one. Same size, a set beats a run, then the higher number wins. Two 7s top two 5s.

OR TAKE THE COUNT

Can't beat it? Steal a card off the move, or kick out and pull a count card into your hand. Every wrestler gets three.

1! 2! 3!

Out of count with no answer, you're pinned. Out of cards, you tap out. Three quick rounds, most points wins.

2–5 players

15 min three short rounds

8+ ages

60 cards in a small box

Ready now: rules, print-and-play, and a browser version with bots at darrendon.github.io/games/down-for-the-count

Darren Don What's Good Board Games darren@whatsgoodboardgames.com